Current opportunities to work with the NCD Alliance and/or our partners will be listed on this page.

With a small, dynamic, passionate and skilled team, the NCD Alliance actively advocates, influences policy, brokers knowledge and good practice, and supports civil society capacity building around priority global health and development issues.

Capacity Development Officer

Contract Type: Employee, full time.

Contract Duration: Fixed term contract (until April 2025, subject to renewal).

Team: Capacity Development.

Reporting to: Capacity Development Manager.

Location: Combination of home-based and working from London office.

Application Deadline: 28 April 2024.

The Capacity Development unit seeks a Capacity Development Officer to support the implementation of the Our Views, Our Voices initiative, specifically the emerging capacity development work on equity. The Our Views, Our Voices initiative is a flagship initiative of the NCDA and people living with NCDs dedicated to promoting the meaningful involvement of people living with NCDs in the NCD response, supporting and enabling individuals to share their views to take action and drive change. It seeks to break down stigma and discrimination, equipping people living with NCDs with the skills, knowledge, and opportunities to be change agents at local and global levels.
