Extended Description: 2017 has been an important year for NCDA, both as an organisation and our ability to prepare the civil society movement for the 2018 UN High-Level Meeting on NCDs. Last year marked a new chapter for NCDA as an organisation, as we evolved from being an informal alliance to being a standalone NGO registered in Switzerland.

Whilst this transition does not change the operations and strategic priorities of NCDA, it has important implications, moving NCDA to a membership model and opening up new opportunities for our network to become more formally and actively engaged in NCDA, as both members and Board Members. These changes are geared to make NCDA more inclusive, strengthen our sustainability, and harness members' and partners' strengths and activities.
