Global Thematic Consultation on Health

Co-led by WHO and UNICEF, and with the support of the governments of Sweden and Botswana, the high-level global thematic consultation on health [1] in the post-2015 agenda took place 5-6 March 2013, in Botswana. This was one of 11 thematic consultations to help define the priorities of the future development agenda.

The consultation culminated in a High-Level Dialogue in Botswana on March 5-6th 2013. Around 50 high-level participants and experts joined the discussion, including government representatives, UN agencies, opinion leaders, NGOs, and members of the UN High Level Panel.

The official summary of the high-level dialogue can be found here [1].

Final report on Health in the post-2015 agenda

The final report of the global thematic consultation on health in the post-2015 development agenda was released April 2013. This report is a technical document, summarizing emerging themes and priorities for health in the future framework gathered from discussions. The report identifies NCDs as a priority for health in post-2015, with “reducing the burden of NCDs” proposed as one of the health goals for the post-2015 framework. It will be presented to the High Level Panel of Eminent Persons [3], to inform their recommendations to the Secretary General on health in the future development agenda.
